

Interested in supporting Aboriginal Communities?

Apply now to the Aboriginal Lands Trust

If you are an Aboriginal person in South Australia and you have any of the following knowledge, skills, and experience, apply now to become a member of the Aboriginal Lands Trust Board.

The Trust holds and manages land titles for the ongoing benefit of Aboriginal people of South Australia. There are vacancies for terms of up to 3 years. Trust members are paid for their time.

Skills and experience

- South Australian Aboriginal community life and culture generally
- residential community life and culture on Trust land
- the management and conservation of natural resources
- the management of agricultural and pastoral land
- commercial enterprise development
- property management and development
- ecologically sustainable development
- corporate governance and administration.

Meetings may be held virtually via video or teleconference. It is therefore desirable for nominees to have access to a reliable phone to participate in confidential calls.

Applications and more information

To apply, write a cover letter describing why you are interested and how your knowledge, skills and experience match with the above criteria.
